

MAGNOLIA CHORALE SCHOLARSHIPS

Magnoliachorale.org

The Magnolia Chorale, directed by Dr. Jean-Marie Kent, is offering four scholarships for talented student singers to join us.

What we can offer you:

- A scholarship ($250 for a concert series)
- Strengthen your skills from two private lessons during the scheduled rehearsals with our professional singing teachers.
- Deeper musical capability from learning and performing with seasoned choristers.
- Joy and pleasure from singing great music with great people

Who we are: a 45-member community chorus that sings masterworks, folk songs, jazz and contemporary music

When we meet: Sundays from 7:00-9:15pm, beginning September 10

Where we meet: Magnolia United Church of Christ, 3555 W. McGraw Street, Seattle, WA The Magnolia Chorale is an independent organization and is not affiliated with the church, its programs, or mission.

What we are singing:

December 3 and 3, 2017 : Keeping Peace

May 5 & 6, 2018: Seriously Carefree

How to apply:

Please send an email expressing your interest to Jean-Marie Kent (jmkent18 at gmail.com). We will then ask for a teacher reference and a singing interview. From our applicant pool, we will choose two singers for each semester. Singers may apply to sing for more than one semester.
